

BIBLE FAIR

October 19th & 20th, 2023

4th Annual 2023

Purpose

1. To allow today's youth to express their Christianity and expand their relationship with the Lord.
2. To gain a better understanding, knowledge and purposes of the lessons/teachings of the Bible.

Who can participate- Ages

1. 2nd Grade and Under (Coloring Pages to be done in classroom)
2. Elementary 3rd- 5th Grades
3. Junior High/Middle School 6th – 8th Grades
4. High School 9th – 12th Grades

Categories

1. Old Testament
2. New Testament

And

1. Individual
2. Group of 2-4 (all members of a group must be in the same age grouping)

Divisions

1. Paper
2. Display/Project
3. Performance

General Rules

1. Participants can enter only one time per division. (example student may enter in paper, individual project and group performance- a participant cannot enter into group display/performance and individual display/performance)
2. Each church affiliation that recognizes contestants must provide one judge that is established within the church.
3. The decision of the judges is final and is not disputable.
4. Any situation that arises that is not covered by these guidelines will be of the ruling of the Bible Fair director and members of its committee.

Name _____

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

Phone # () _____

Home Church _____

Age Range

Elementary

Junior High/ Middle S.

High School

Categories

Old Testament

New Testament

And Individual

Group

And Paper

Display/Project

Performance

Paper

- Papers are only for individuals
- Paper Length-- (E – 1 page), (JH/MS – 3-5 pages), (HS 5-10 pages)
- All Papers will contain a title page with the paper's title in the top center of the page. Name and Grade
- E and JH/MS papers can be handwritten in their own handwriting or typed. HS must type their paper in no larger than a 12 font.
- Paper should be well developed with an introduction, Bible supported Body and Conclusion.
- The introduction should clear state the purpose of the paper and its importance. It should also state what you hope to achieve with writing on your topic.
- Pictures/Drawings/ Tables/Graphs/Maps are encouraged but do not count in the length of the paper.
- Body – should list Bible references and/or outside reference sources, such as books, articles, personal interviews, and websites.
- Summary should summarize the main purpose of the writing.
- A separate page not counted in the length of the paper should give credit to all those who have helped you with your paper.
- Presentation and neatness will account for part of the scoring.

Display

- Display must be student –self operated/explained to the different aspect of the project during time of judging.
- A title and purpose/story/biblical lesson should be in plain view. Make sure everything is explained/labeled clearly for the audience as if seeing the project for the first time unattended.
- Size of project/displays shall be no larger than 18 in/45.7 cm deep, 48 in/122 cm wide and no taller than 36 in/ 91.4 cm high. All displays/projects must be self standing and sit on a table top. Store bought display boards meet this criteria.
- Pictures/Drawings/Tables/Graphs/Maps must be clearly sited if obtained from a outside sources. Personal photographs are permitted providing names are excluded.
- Displays should be creative, neat, and appealing to the eye of your audience.
- Displays that require electricity must supply their own power source or wall electrical sockets may be available at a first come first served bases.
- Any handouts to judges/public must be limited to one page with printing on only one side.
- Live, sharp, flammable, and anything deemed dangerous are prohibited items for the display.

Performance

- Performances shall begin with a statement of the title, performers' name(s), and purpose of the performance.
- Performances should be original in nature with a biblical story/lesson clearly evident within the delivery.
- All props and costumes shall be of appropriate nature. Live, sharp, flammable, and anything deemed dangerous are prohibited props for the performance.
- Performances shall be no shorter than 3 minutes and no longer than 5 minutes. A penalty in scoring for all performance that does not meet the time limits.
- Performances should be creative, original and informative/entertaining to your audience.
- Any handouts to judges/public must be limited to one page with printing on only one side.
- Performers should be prepared to answer questions about their performance after their presentation.

Questions – Contact Jami Jaeger
jjaeger@lcaeagles.com or 636-745-0388

All registration forms should be completely filled out before registering their entry.